

AIM Group Gets Awarded at Eventex

April 10, 2019

AIM Group International, a leading company specialised in congresses, events and communication, has received four First Prizes at the 9th Global Eventex Awards for their effective and creative events organised.

The SIAARTI Academy event of the Italian Society for Anaesthesia, Analgesia, Resuscitation and Intensive Care won 1st prize CSR event for the group. The event was hosted for seven days on the small island of Lampedusa, which was a way to leave a positive legacy on the destination and local operators in terms of image and professionalism and economic development. 1st Prize Educational Event also came from SIAARTI Academy through its training event that included classroom training, interactive sessions, hands-on workstations and a maxi simulation of an emergency situation.

1st Prize Medical Congress was awarded to the group for the 28th European Meeting on Hypertension and Cardiovascular Protection held in Barcelona and its live streaming between Barcelona and Beijing was organised during the presentation of the new ESH Guidelines. Finally, 1st Prize Gala came for the Welcome Dinner of the International Bar Association (IBA) at Villa Aldobrandini. The event is seen by IBA as a special event to mark the beginning of several days intense work and as a networking event which must surprise participants and be memorable.

Similar Articles

- Posted: April 9, 2019

‘Digital Internal Communications’ is the third in a series of sessions on “Digitalization for Associations” co-produced with Cambre and ESAE. The workshop will take place on 14 June between 11.00 and 12.30.

- Posted: April 8, 2019

While Toronto, Montréal and Vancouver have long been some of Canada’s top destinations for international business events, cities across Canada are attracting global conferences, thanks in large part to the academics and industry innovators across a variety of sectors.